MYLIFE UNPLUGGED. . . can turn your life around!

A pathway to Joy, Abundance & Happiness!

Seminar style workshop to help you sort through your life's thoughts in order to attain better outcomes in relationships, happiness, success and life's purpose!

Learn about energy centers around your body and how they control your life!

Noted authors have time and again discussed the "are we alone" question and come up with "not really!". Other galaxies have been discovered, ET's probably exist and have shaped our world and continue to do so. Russian scientists have gone public with how human DNA has been modified in the past to produce humans. Disclosure is minimal but world attention and belief has changed dramatically over recent years with TV shows like 'Ancient Aliens' and archeology findings (22,000 Sumerian cuneiform tablets) the world is starting to believe a different start up history and reality.

So it is not far fetched to expect that there is more to the unseen than we realise. Even the Bible tells us so. When we focus our imagination on our desires in a certain manner, as if we already have that which we desire, our reality meets our wishes! There is much for us to learn!

Creation and evolution co-exist. It is a cosmic universal model. Things created in the consciousness come into being and can change and evolve over time. What was once considered unknown, far fetched, mystical and myth is now being proven by science and opening the channels for energy, peace of mind and abundance in millions of people enabling them to live in harmony with the universal laws that govern existence.

Energy is all around us. Science has made amazing leaps over the past few decades. Peering beyond the atom into the quantum shows there is may be no such thing as solid matter. A conscious focus on a particle can change its structure to a frequency wave immediately. Thoughts are real things and have an amazing impact on your reality both in the present moment and in the future.
